

DISCOVER
THE MAGIC OF
LE MARCHE
REGION

Wine Experience of Jesi

This unique experience will lead us to discover and taste the local wines of Jesi, an historic town of Le Marche region: including the “Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Doc”, a renowned local wine produced with grapes from the vineyards of this gorgeous area.

We will enjoy a stroll through the scenic vineyards of a local winery, admiring the beautiful landscapes that surround us before trying the wines.

Tour available starting from 120 euros per person
(excluding bank holidays and long weekend breaks)

Price includes:

- 1 night in a 3-star hotel/agriturismo in Jesi or surroundings, with accommodation sharing a double room, breakfast included
- visit of a local winery with tasting of the «Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Doc»
- 24/7 phone assistance

E-Bike or Canoe the natural paradise of “Gola del Furlo” State Natural Reserve

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Tour available starting from 195 euros per person
(excluding bank holidays and long weekend breaks, tour for a minimum of 2 people, canoe excursion location will be at «Le Marmite dei Giganti»)

Price includes:

- 1 night in a 3-star hotel/agriturismo in Furlo area or surroundings, with accommodation sharing a double room, breakfast included
- e-bike (3 hours) or canoe (2 hours) rental with equipment
- cycling expert guide (3 hours) or naturalistic guide (2 hours), in Italian (supplement for other languages)
- 24/7 phone assistance

This natural reserve has an extraordinary landscape, geology, flora and fauna of importance.

During the visit you will be accompanied by a naturalist expert guide, riding an e-bike or, for water sports enthusiasts, even by canoe, sailing the scenic Candigliano river, which created the stupendous Furlo Gorge.

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Truffle Hunting Experience!

Photo credit: Regione Marche

In Le Marche Region, if you say truffle, you say Acqualagna, which is the local and international reference for the ancient art of truffle hunting!

Here you will be accompanied by an expert, in a truffle ground or in the woods, in search of this precious tuber-shaped mushroom. The experience will end with a truffle-based dish and includes a visit to the near Truffle Museum of Acqualagna.

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Tour available starting from 195 euros per person

(excluding bank holidays and long weekend breaks, supplement for visits at the Truffle Museum of Acqualagna outside standard opening hours and at least 48 hours notice requested)

Price includes:

- 1 night in a 3-star hotel/agriturismo in Acqualagna or surroundings, with accommodation sharing a double room, breakfast included
- truffle-based dish for lunch at a local restaurant
- Truffle Museum of Acqualagna entry ticket (digital/interactive visit)
- 24/7 phone assistance

Italian Renaissance in Le Marche: Urbino e Urbania

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Urbino represents one of the most important cradles of the Italian Renaissance. Thanks to the Duke Federico da Montefeltro, the city was permeated by a fertile and artistic atmosphere, and by important cultural exchanges as much of antiquity was rediscovered.

This experience will start right from Urbino, with a guided tour of the city, and will continue with a transfer to nearby Urbania, a city that since the Renaissance, produces beautiful and amazing Maiolica Pottery masterpieces. Here, we will visit a maiolica workshop and/or the unique “Church of the Dead” Museum, where bodies and skeletons dating back to 1567 are housed. The whole story of these bodies and their perfect mummification is waiting to be discovered!

Tour available starting from 299 euros per person
 (excluding bank holidays and long weekend breaks)

Price includes:

- 1 night in a 3-star hotel/agriturismo in Urbino or surroundings, with accommodation sharing a double room, breakfast included
- local guide in Urbino (3 hours), in Italian (supplement for other languages)
- local guide in Urbania (2 hours), in Italian (supplement for other languages)
- 24/7 phone assistance

Photo credit: Regione Marche

A medieval welcome at Gradara Castle

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Gradara Castle, the theater for Paolo and Francesca's loves (the famous story told in Dante Alighieri's Divine Comedy), is ready to welcome you in medieval costumes!

You will be welcomed and escorted by a team in authentic period costume into the inner sanctum of the medieval fortress pausing to taste the "Ippocrasso" (an ancient drink made with flavored wine) and accompanied by curiosities of that period's daily life.

Upon request we can combine the visit with an amazing themed dinner.

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Tour available starting from 150 euros per person

(excluding bank holidays and long weekend breaks, tour available for a minimum of 2 people)

Price includes:

- 1 night in a 3-star hotel/agriturismo in Gradara or surroundings, with accommodation sharing a double room, breakfast included
- medieval welcome by a jester and tasting of the «Ippocrasso»
- 1-hour guided tour inside the medieval fortress, in Italian (supplement for other languages)
- 24/7 phone assistance

Cooking class of traditional dishes from Ascoli

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Tour available starting from 150 euros per person
(excluding bank holidays and long weekend breaks, tour available for a minimum of 2 people)

Price includes:

- 1 night in a 3-star hotel/agriturismo in Ascoli Piceno or surroundings, with accommodation sharing a double room, breakfast included
- cooking class of traditional cuisine of Le Marche/Ascoli (around 2 hours), in Italian and lunch based on dishes cooked together (supplement for other languages)
- 24/7 phone assistance

Enjoy a cooking class of traditional cuisine of Le Marche, particularly from Ascoli.

You will learn how to prepare local dishes such as Vincisgrassi (a local Lasagna), Olive all'Ascolana (local stuffed olives) and much more which will then be enjoyed during the lunch together, along with a good local wine!

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Music itinerary across Castelfidardo and Macerata

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Castelfidardo is well-known, all over the world, for being the birthplace of the accordion, the beautiful instrument characterized by its strong ability to bring people together for entertainment.

This interesting experience includes a guided tour of the Accordion Museum of Castelfidardo, and then a transfer to Macerata, before ending our “itinerary in music” with a visit of Macerata’s historical city-center and the Sferisterio (externally), which is a famous open-air theatre, where international operas are staged every year.

Tour available starting from 185 euros per person
(excluding bank holidays and long weekend breaks, Accordion Museum of Castelfidardo entry ticket: euros 5,00 per person - to purchase on site)

Price includes:

- 1 night in a 3-star hotel/agriturismo in Castelfidardo or surroundings, with accommodation sharing a double room, breakfast included
- Macerata’s historical city-center 3-hours guided tour, in Italian -supplement for other languages-
- 24/7 phone assistance

Photo credit: Regione Marche

In the footsteps of Rossini - Pesaro

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Tour available starting from 195 euros per person
(excluding bank holidays and long weekend breaks)

Price includes:

- 1 night in a 3-star hotel in Pesaro, with accommodation sharing a double room, breakfast included
- around 2,5-hour guided tour of Pesaro city-center, in Italian (supplement for other languages)
- around 30-minute guided tour of Rossini Native Home, in Italian + entry ticket (supplement for other languages)
- 24/7 phone assistance

The seaside city of Pesaro is popular for being the birthplace of Gioachino Rossini, the famous Italian Opera composer. One of the most important Opera Kermesse takes place here every year at the Rossini Opera Festival.

During a unique city tour, it will be possible to travel through the places linked to Rossini such as his Native Home, the Rossini Theater and the Rossini Conservatory.

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Loreto and its Basilica

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Tour available starting from 185 euros per person

(excluding bank holidays and long weekend breaks, headphones for the Basilica: euros 1,50 per person to purchase on site)

Price includes:

- 1 night in a 3-star hotel/agriturismo in Loreto or surroundings, with accommodation sharing a double room, breakfast included
- 3-hour guided tour of Loreto city-center + Basilica, in Italian (supplement for other languages)
- 24/7 phone assistance

The Basilica of Loreto is one of the most famous pilgrimage sites in the world and is the largest Marian shrine in Italy.

This guided tour will lead you to discover Loreto's city center and its Basilica, preserving the Holy House of Nazareth where, according to the tradition, the Virgin Mary was born, lived and received the announcement of the miraculous birth of Jesus.

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Frasassi Caves and Fabriano, “the city of paper”

This wonderful experience includes a visit of the Frasassi Caves, which are beautiful karstic caves developed within Gola della Rossa and Frasassi Regional Park.

Here it is possible to choose a guided visit (suitable for everyone) or, for adventurous people, a visit down a more adventurous trail, allowing you to visit the caves from a speleological point of view, accompanied by a local expert guide.

The proximity to Fabriano will allow a quick transfer to this beautiful city of Le Marche’s hinterland and renowned traditional European paper production center.

The tour will end with a visit of the Paper and Watermark Museum, where a guide will retrace the ancient history of paper for us.

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Photo credit: Regione Marche

Tour available starting from 150 euro per person

(excluding bank holidays and long weekend breaks)

Price includes:

- 1 night in a 3-star hotel/agriturismo in Frasassi or surroundings with accommodation sharing a double room, breakfast included
- Frasassi caves guided tour + entry ticket (classic trail), in Italian (supplement for other languages)
Please note that clients will visit the Caves in groups of max 40/50 people.
- Paper and Watermark Museum of Fabriano guided tour, in Italian + entry ticket (supplement for other languages)
Please note that clients could be merged into small groups of max 15 people.
- 24/7 phone assistance